

Vendor Document Rules

1. Business Registration

- Must show company name, registration number, and date of registration.
- Issued by a government body or chamber of commerce.
- Should not look fake (no missing seals, strange fonts, or edits).
- Must still be valid (not expired).

2. Business License

- Must include license number, company name, and address.
- Issued by the correct authority.
- Should not be fake.
- Must be within the valid date.

3. Aadhaar Card

- Must show a valid 12-digit Aadhaar number, name, and address.
- Should have security features like QR code or authenticity marks.
- Should not be fake or edited.

4. Artisan / Trade License

- Must include artisan's name, trade details, and license number.
- Issued by a recognized trade authority or guild.
- Must look genuine and still valid.

5. Bank Statement

- Must show bank name, account holder name, and account number.
- Should include recent transactions (within last 6 months).
- Must have official bank logo and proper format.
- Should not look fake or altered.

6. Product Catalog

- Must show a proper list of products with descriptions and images.
- If certifications are included (GI, Fair Trade, Organic, etc.), they should have real certificate numbers and issuing authority.
- Must not look fake.
- Will also be used to measure product quality and certifications.

7. Certifications

- Must show valid certification details (certificate number, issuing authority, and validity).
- Must match what the vendor claims.
- Must not look fake.
- Will also be used to measure product integrity.

Buyer Document Rules

1. Articles of Incorporation (Business Registration)

- Must show company name, incorporation date, and registration number.
- Issued by government or registry authority.
- Should not be fake or expired.

2. Business License

- Must include license number, company name, and address.
- Issued by the correct authority with a valid date.
- Should not be fake.

3. Photo ID (Aadhaar / Passport / Driver's License)

- Must show name, photo, and ID number.
- Issued by government authority.
- Should still be valid and not fake.

4. Trade License (Artisan/Business)

- Must include business name, trade details, and license number.
- Issued by government or trade authority.
- Must be valid and real.

5. Bank Statement

- Must show bank name, account holder name, and account number.
- Should include recent transactions (last 6 months).
- Must look official and not fake.

6. Product Catalog

- Must show a proper list of products with descriptions and images.
- Should not look fake or altered.

7. Certifications

- Must include certification number, issuing authority, and validity period.
- Should not be fake.